

Course Registration Resources

Utilize the following resources to select your courses.

Class Search Tool

Access the Class Search Tool by going to <https://registrar.ucdavis.edu/courses/search/index.cfm>. This provides enhanced real-time class search by Course Registration Number (CRN, a five digit ID for the class), subject, course number, instructor, day of the week, time, and whether seats remain open.

Also, here is a sample with an explanation.

63346 1:10 - 2:00 PM, MWF	ECN 100A GIEDT 1002	B02 30	Intermed Micro Theory No GE Credit • No GE Credit	Bushnell, J 4.0	view 63346	[+]
63346 7:10 - 8:00 PM, T	ECN 100A KERR 293	B02 30	Intermed Micro Theory No GE Credit • No GE Credit	Bushnell, J 4.0	view 63346	[+]

The course registration number (CRN) for this course is 70373. The course subject and number are ECN 100A (Economics 100A). This course's lectures are taught M (Monday), W (Wednesday), and F (Friday) from 1:10 – 2:00 PM in the Giedt Building, Room 1002; the discussion is taught on T (Tuesday) in the Kerr Building, Room 293. Please note that these times are listed on separate lines, but have the same CRN, meaning students will be required to attend both times. There are 30 open spaces in the course. This course is titled "Intermediate Micro Theory." The instructor's name is J. Bushnell. The course is 4.0 units. By clicking "view 63346," you will see the detailed course description.

Schedule Builder Tool

Access the Schedule Builder online at <http://sisweb.ucdavis.edu> and select "Schedule Builder". Schedule Builder is a schedule planning tool available through the SISWEB homepage. When you login to SISWEB, there will be an option for Schedule Builder in the blue bar at the top of the screen. You can use Schedule Builder to plan schedules and search for available courses, but you cannot register for classes through this site. A "UC Davis Extension Hold" notification will appear on your homepage.

You can look up courses by selecting "Log in," selecting the appropriate quarter from the pulldown options, and finally "Add/Search courses." Enter the course, instructor, time, or other options to find classes that best match your search preferences.

Here is an example with an explanation of a course listing in Schedule Builder.

CRN:	Subj Course Sec:	Title:	Open / Waitlist:	Units:	Instructor(s):
63346	ECN 100A B02	Intermed Micro Theory	30 / 0	4	J. Bushnell	Save
	1:10 PM - 2:00 PM	M,W,F	Lecture		Giedt 1002	Show Details
	7:10 PM - 8:00 PM	T	Discussion		Kerr Hall 293

The course registration number (CRN) for this course is 70373. The course subject and number are ECN 100A (Economics 100A). This course's lectures are taught M (Monday), W (Wednesday), and F (Friday) from 1:10 – 2:00 PM in the Giedt Building, Room 1002; the discussion is taught on T (Tuesday) in the Kerr Building, Room 293. Please note that these times are listed on separate lines, but have the same CRN, meaning students will be required to attend both times. There are 30 open spaces in the course. This course is titled "Intermediate Micro Theory." The instructor's name is J. Bushnell. The course is 4.0 units. If you click on "Show Details," you will see a detailed course description and prerequisites.

Course Registration Resources

The General Catalog

Access the general catalog online at <http://catalog.ucdavis.edu/catindex.html>. The General Catalog describes every course offered at UC Davis in every subject throughout the year. This catalog is updated once every two years, represents the University's plan for courses to be offered, and is subject to change each term. A copy of the catalog should be available at your university's international office. Courses are not always offered in their listed quarter.

Here is a sample course description along with an explanation.

100. Intermediate Micro Theory (4)

Lecture—3 hours; discussion—1 hour. Prerequisite: course 1A-1B and Mathematics 16A-16B or Mathematics 17A-17B or Mathematics 21A-21B, with a grade of C- or better in each course. Price and distribution theory under conditions of perfect and imperfect competition. General equilibrium and welfare economics. Not open for credit to students who have completed Agricultural and Resource Economics 100A or 100B. —F, W, S. (F, W, S.)

Note the following about the course. The course number is 100, and is worth (4) units. It will have a lecture (large classroom) and discussion (small group, conversational style) every week. It has prerequisites. If you have not completed the equivalent of Economics 1A, 1B, and Math 16A and 16B (or 21A or 21B) you may not take this course. The roman numerals (I, II, III) indicate that the course is taught during the Fall (I), Winter (II), and Spring (III) quarters (subject to change).

Additional Instructions

- Do not list classes labeled as 200 and above. These are courses for graduate level students.
- Do not list Linguistics (LIN) courses 20-29 as they are reserved for degree-seeking international students. There may be unique Linguistics or School of Education (EDU) courses taught only for GSP students. We will notify you about these via email.
- Courses in Engineering require that you submit translated syllabi for all relevant prerequisites.
- Do not list courses in the University Writing Program (UWP). There may be unique UWP courses taught only for GSP students. We will notify you about these via email.
- To enroll in courses that list the "Subject A Exam" or "Completion of Entry Level Writing Examination" as a pre-requisite, you will need to pass an intensive English writing exam. This requirement includes every course in both the English department and the Communications department. You will be able to take the exam upon arrival.
- In order to take language courses, students need to pass a foreign language exam. You can take the exam when you arrive in Davis. Based on the results the GSP staff can then place students in a foreign language course. Here's the exam's link: <http://ucdlc.ucdavis.edu/foreign-language-placement-exams>